Access to International Permaculture Communication Tools

This document outlines who has access to which communication tools.

It is intended to ensure that there is transparency to know who has access to which tools and the reason for their access.

Members of the Digital Circle as the service provider can add and remove people's access upon request.

- email: contact@perma.earth

email: contact@perma.earth